LEADERSHIP COACH IS “ON THE RISE”

The Career Group’s Regina Olbinsky is recognized by The Cleveland Jewish News

Cleveland, OH – August 28, 2008 – Regina D. Olbinsky, PHR was recognized by The Cleveland Jewish News (CJN) in the paper’s recent feature, “On the Rise.” Olbinsky was one of 20 recipients whose careers continually make an impact on the Cleveland business community. The selection was made by the CJN editorial staff based on entrepreneurial accomplishments. Olbinsky is president of The Career Group, LLC, a career and leadership coaching firm, which she founded in 2003.

“I am delighted to be recognized in the company of such brilliant individuals,” states Olbinsky. “It is such an honor to know that my work has made a significant impact on the community.” The MBA graduate from the Case Western Reserve University’s Weatherhead School of Management has over 18 years of experience working in her field within Cleveland.

“These up-and-comers are getting noticed in the business world,” said CJN publisher Michael E. Bennett. “We wanted to showcase them so the broader community could see the positive impact they have – and know that the future looks bright for those who choose to live and work in Cleveland.” For more information about the winners, visit clevelandjewishnews.com.

Olbinsky earned her BS with Honors in Psychology, Human Resource Management and Russian from The Ohio State University. In addition, she has earned a Certificate in Developing Leadership through Emotional Intelligence from Weatherhead, the Registered Corporate Coach (RCC) Designation from the Worldwide Association of Business Coaches and the Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification from the Human Resource Certification Institute. Olbinsky is accredited to use and interpret several key industry assessment instruments. Executives from Cleveland, nearby states and as even as far Denver turn to Olbinsky for leadership coaching in order to develop leadership skills, to improve confidence in making decisions and to become an efficient manager.
